WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair and warmer tonight and Friday, with southwest winds.

For the District of Columbia, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, fair and warmer tonight and Friday; moderate south and southwest winds.

A marked change to cooler weather has taken place over the plains states, the Rocky mountain region and the middle Atlantic coast. Warmer weather is general in the upper Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the lake region.

A disturbance of marked intensity is central north of Minnesota, and within the last twenty-four hours it has caused high winds over the plains states, the upper Mississippi valley and upper lake region, and precipitation in the northern states. Scattered rains were also reported from the Pacific coast and the plateau region. There was snow in Nevada and northwestern Wyoming. In all districts other than those referred to the weather remained fair during the last twenty-four hours.

Fair weather will continue tonight and Friday in the eastern and southeastern states, Tennessee, the Ohio valley and the lower lake region. In the upper lake region the weather will be unsettled with rain tonight or Friday in northern Michigan.

The temperature will rise tonight in the middle Atlantic and New England states, and Friday on the middle Atlantic and New England coasts; it will fall tonight in the upper lake region and Indiana, and Friday in the Ohio valley and the lake region.

The winds along the New England coast will be brisk, southwesterly, and from the middle Atlantic coast moderate south and southwest; on the south Atlantic and Gulf coasts, light southerly, except variable on the south Florida coast.

Steamers departing today for European ports will have light to moderate variable winds, becoming brisk south and southwest and generally fair weather to the Grand Banks.

PENNSY TO PACIFIC COAST!

San Francisco Hears Railroad Is Going to Extend Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 24.—The Call today says: The Pennsylvania railroad is headed for the Pacific coast. The system that laces the eastern states has San Francisco as its objective. It is preparing to make its way to California through the agency of the Santa Fe. The plan is said to contemplate as its ultimate object the union of the two big lines.

For the present the Pennsylvania has been the purchase of Santa Fe stock on an extensive scale. It proposes to dominate the affairs of the western road and thus acquire through tracking from ocean to ocean.
